Pie Baking Class - (LAST CHANCE) Tuesday, November 20, 6:00 pm: With Thanksgiving around the corner, everyone will be wanting to eat some homemade pie. Join Matt Reaves in a masterclass on making the perfect pie - your choice of apple or pecan - including a wonderful crust you can lift right out of the pan! You have the option of baking your pie in the class or taking it home to freeze. The class is $30. For questions or additional info, you can email Matt at matt.reaves@minnetonkaumc.org. Please sign up in Fellowship Hall. Spots are limited.

Did you know: in the United Methodist tradition we don't actually have a structure called an "altar"? That's because an altar is a place where sacrifice is offered, and Christ already made the ultimate sacrifice once and for all. That large brown structure at the front of our sanctuary is called a communion table. That's why the pastors and worship leaders decided to move it down off the chancel and into the midst of the congregation.

Those wishing to nominate themselves or others for the Nominations Team or the Servant Leadership Board should fill out the interest form. Forms can be found on the information wall in Fellowship Hall. If you would like the form in electronic copy, please contact Michelle Schober in the office:
